

Canada's 25 Featured Playgrounds (from Canada's 150 Coolest Playgrounds)

Carcross Commons - Carcross, Yukon

This beautiful and unique playground was inspired by local history, Yukon landmarks, and First Nations creation stories.

(photo courtesy of Earthscape)

Terra Nova Natural Play Environment - Richmond, BC

More than just a playground, this destination park strives to make city kids feel more connected to nature through the use of natural play materials, lots of space, trees, and other vegetation.

(photo courtesy of Calgary Playground Review)

Broadmoor Lake Park - Sherwood Park, AB

This eye-catching playground beside Broadmoor Lake, near Edmonton, has something for everyone, including a huge slide, a climber shaped like a ship, a natural play area, and a ship-themed spray park.

(photo courtesy of Calgary Playground Review)

Potash Corp Playland Kinsmen Park - Saskatoon, Saskatchewan

Located next to a mini fair, this playground features natural climbing features and a zip line, as well as a sand play area and interactive water play area.

(photo courtesy of Saskatoon Playground Review)

Nature Playground in Assiniboine Park - Winnipeg, Manitoba

This creative, sprawling, natural play area is designed to spark children's imagination through active play and includes both a sand play area and an interactive water play area.

(photo courtesy of Assiniboine Park Conservancy)

Mooney Bay's - Ottawa, ON

Billed as Canada's largest playground, Mooney's Bay Park was featured on the program Giver and was designed to celebrate Canada's 150th birthday with areas of the playground showcasing each of Canada's 10 provinces and 3 territories.

(photo courtesy of Stroller Parking)

Baie de Beauport - Quebec City, QC

Located right along the river, this playground featuring Kompan equipment offers great views and lots of exciting climbing opportunities, as well as a nearby splashpad.

(photo courtesy of Atmosphère Inc)

Highland Park - Salisbury - New Brunswick

Salisbury's Highland Park is a perfect all-season park with a natural playground, walking trails by the Petitcodiac River, a brand-new splash pad, traditional playground equipment, and lots of green space to enjoy - just 7kms off the Trans Canada Highway outside Moncton.

(photo courtesy of Pickle Planet Moncton)

Dewolf Playground - Bedford, NS

A perfect playground for the preschool set, with stunning views of the Halifax Harbour and bridges, this nautical themed playground offers accessible flooring, a large sunshade, and even a working periscope.

(photo courtesy of Itsy Bitsy Haligonians)

Bannerman Park - St. John's, Newfoundland

Newfoundland's first public park, located in downtown St. John's, is newly-renovated with a large accessible playground that will appeal to kids of all ages. The park also offers a loop skating rink in the winter and a spray park in the summer.

(photo courtesy of Jennifer M. Stamp)

Eliot River Dream Park - Cornwall, PEI

This distinctive Leathers & Associates 10,000 square foot wooden, inclusive playground will make kids feel like they are exploring a castle.

(photo courtesy of Gordon Matthews)

Dufferin Grove - Toronto, ON

One of the best adventure playgrounds in Canada, in addition to a variety of traditional equipment, this shady playground features a huge sand pit with a working tap, right in the middle of Toronto.

(photo courtesy of Multiple Momstrocitiy)

Parc Nathan Shuster - Montreal, QC

This park will test your balance and bravery! A rope, log, and, boulder obstacle course circles part of the playground, while a zipline will fling you towards the finish line.

(photo courtesy of Stroller Parking)

Currie Barracks Airport Playground - Calgary, AB

Your kids' imagination will soar as they go down the tall control tower slide at this airport-themed playground.

(photo courtesy of photo courtesy of Calgary Playground Review)

Riverside Park - Kamloops, BC

Located near downtown right along the river, this accessible playground boasts a huge web climber, a nearby water park, and music in the park on summer nights.

(photo courtesy of Kamloops Playgrounds)

Springbank Park - London, ON

You could spend all day at this huge London park which features a colourful accessible playground, sandbox area, and wading pool.

(photo courtesy of London Playground Review)

Baycliffe Park (Rocketship Park) - Whitby, ON

Your kids will love racing down the two story tunnel slides at this rocket-themed playground. The park also features a nearby splash pad and BMX pathway.

(Photo courtesy of Durham Region Playground Reviews)

Sandra Schmirler Play Space - Regina, SK

With a large castle-themed playground, toddler-sized treehouse climber, and a wonderful nearby spray pad, kids will sure to be impressed with this Regina playground.

(photo courtesy of Kinderbuzz)

Marnevic Memorial Park - Fox Creek, AB

This playground's heavy duty construction equipment theme can be seen throughout, from the large pieces all the way down to the activity panels.

(photo courtesy of Calgary Playground Review)

Exhibition Park Playground - Guelph, ON

This natural playground uses wood extensively to create a huge variety of challenging playground features, in addition to a sand play area and water pump.

(photo courtesy of Earthscape)

Queenston Park - Coquitlam, BC

This eye-catching playground is set into a hill providing a very unique play experience.

(photo credit: Landscape Structures)

Variety Heritage Adventure Park at The Forks - Winnipeg, MB

Located right outside The Forks National historic site, this playground provides a dramatic backdrop for kids to experience The Forks history through creative and imaginative play.

(photo courtesy of Play by Crozier)

Grange Park (AGO Playground) - Toronto, ON [replace with actual photo]

The play structures at this brand new imaginative playground, near the Art Gallery of Ontario, represent elements of an artist studio.

(photo courtesy of Earthscape)

Rotary Club's Pirate Ship playground - Belleville, ON

This huge wooden pirate ship themed playground provides a delightful backdrop for imaginative play.

(photo courtesy of Bay of Quinte Tourism)

Cadboro-Gyro Park - Victoria, BC

Watch out for sea monsters at this popular waterfront playground. The playground has been recently revitalized but you can still find the iconic sea creatures.

(photo courtesy of Saanich Parks)
